

Young Geographer of the Year Competition

"Where, How and Why"

This year, to encourage young people to widen their geographical horizons, the Royal Geographical Society is asking pupils; where, how and why?

Where might you want to travel to? How would you get there? What makes this place geographically interesting, important, or meaningful to you?

We'd like you to give a geographical overview of the place you'd like to visit. It doesn't matter if the place is local to you or much further afield, we'd like you to give it a geographical overview and share your understanding of its key physical and human features.
